

FURTHER CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Further to the cautionary announcement dated 30 July 2019, shareholders are advised that negotiations for the Emeritus International capital raise are still in progress which, if successfully concluded, the full impact of the capital raise are still being determined, and that this event may have a material effect on the price of the company's securities. Accordingly, shareholders are advised to continue exercising caution when dealing in the company's securities until a full announcement is made.

By order of the Board

L Madzinga

Group Company Secretary

20 August 2019